MEDIATORS PROJECT AT A GLANCE

The project will be carried out between 20–27 June 2022.

The project will take place in Bethlehem and Jerusalem

Conflict, storytelling, culture of debate, multiculturalism and non-formal learning are the topics of the project.

This project is an Erasmus+ Mobility of Youth Workers project. It is funded by the European Union Commission and the Turkish National Agency.

Youth Participation and Intercultural Dialogue Association (YPIDA) is the operating organisation of the project.

HOST ORGANIZATION

As YPIDA, we have been addressing young people's needs, expectations, and problems through education, cooperation, and networking activities at an international level and creating areas where they can improve themselves since 2008.

We continue to create added value for humanity and encourage young people to be more active individuals by bringing together young people from different cultures and backgrounds.

AIM OF THE PROJECT

The project aims to equip young people from different regions with conflict history on storytelling, debate culture, and the Erasmus+ program to create a common voice against conflicts.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

- To create a collective message on conflict resolution by combining storytelling and debating skills through the Erasmus+ program
- To advocate for the critical role of youth workers as mediators of dialogue in their communities
- To develop analytical and debating skills
- To provide a safe space where current global issues are discussed
- To promote international peace and stability by strengthening and supporting intercultural relations at all levels

We condemn all forms of war, everywhere and all the time.

We stand by our Ukrainian friends in these difficult days. We want to offer constructive support and a platform and tool to speak up and find new ways to reconnect.

We highly encourage our Ukrainian fellows to apply to our project. We are pleased to state that we will be evaluating the applications of Ukrainian candidates in a particular category during the Mediators Project participant application process.
